Small lot of Coats and Vests (only about 25 of them, mostly large sizes) from $15, $18, $20 and $25 suits, at $7.00

for Coat and Vest. There are double and single breasted sacks and cutaway frocks—some mixed colors, but most of them are Black Cheviot or Thibet. Not one is worth less than $12 and many of them are cheap at $20—if there's one to fit you it's the biggest kind of a bargain.

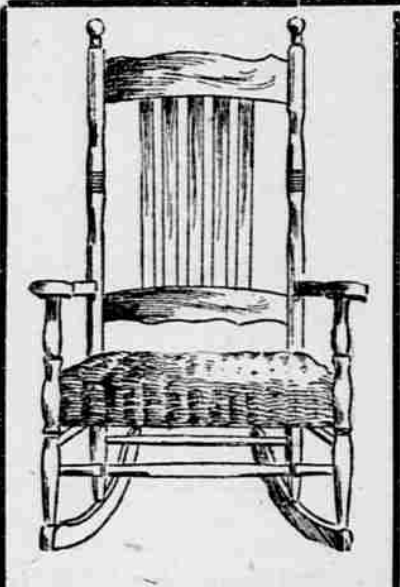

We could fill this page with talk about our Overcoats, and then not enumerate all of their good points—it simply outclasses every other assortment we ever saw. Oversacks in correct length, knee lengths or longer. Paddocks, Cape Coats, Inverness, Ulsters, Military Coats—any style you want, made from the proper fabrics, properly trimmed, and proper fitting. Prices, $10 to $45—with full value for your money in each and every grade. Your money back if you don't think so.

TO RESTORE WOOL DUTY.

Growers and Dealers Meet to Formulate a Plan of Action.
A meeting of wool growers and wool dealers, called by Mr. Lawrence, president of the National Wool Growers' Association, was held here yesterday. Ten or a dozen persons were present.
There was a general interchange of views upon the necessity of incorporating a duty on wool in any tariff measure proposed in Congress, and a committee of five was appointed to examine a memorial to Congress, submitted by Judge Lawrence, asking that the duty on wool be restored.
The committee consists of Mr. Lawrence,

Bellevue, Ohio; Carey Conigli, Wash. Ind.; Theodore Justice, Philadelphia; A. E. Shepard, Morahan, Tex.; L. D. Birch, Chicago.
Accompanying the memorial will be a great quantity of statistics, showing the effect of the removal of the tariff upon the sheep and wool industry of the country, the whole making a large document.

Inquiry Into Ventilation of Public Buildings to Be Resumed.

MR. FRIZZELL'S SUGGESTION

Street Extension in the First Section Being Blocked by Legal Proceedings, He Asks That the Northeastern Section Be Taken in Hand—Supt. Stevens Favors Aquatic Exhibitions.

The commission to investigate the heating and ventilating of public buildings will soon resume its labors, begun shortly after its appointment, June 15 last. It will be charged also with inquiry into the smoke nuisance.

The commission consists of Building Inspector Brady, Capt. Barr, Dr. John S. Hallings, and Health Officer Woodward. They made an inquiry last summer into the question of lighting and heating, a number of school buildings and recommended that a heating system be introduced into three of these buildings as an experiment, and the most practical method to rid the city of nuisance from the smoke of soft coal.

Commissioner Stevens yesterday made an order requiring that these gentlemen resume their investigation as early as practicable and add to their duties an examination of auto-exhausting devices and the most practical method to rid the city of nuisance from the smoke of soft coal.

STREET EXTENSION.
Mr. W. J. Frizzell yesterday suggested to Major Powell that since street extension in the first section is blocked by the opposition of property owners and a similar obstacle is expected in other sections, that under consideration, he should call his attention to the portion of the district lying northeast of the city.

Major Powell agreed that it would probably be more economical to make extensions first in the section indicated; but he said that he directly to the commissioners, taking first those parts of the outlying lands where the most irregular subdivisions are reported. That provision takes it necessary to follow the order already outlined.

It is possible, however, that duplication suits may bring work to a standstill in the first sections, in which case the northeast would probably be taken up.

During the past two days Major Powell has looked over the plans for street extensions in the northeast corner of the city, in company with Mr. F. L. O'Connell, the Boston landscape expert, employed to assist him. Architect Elmer C. Johnson, of the Cathedral opposite the President's country home, at Woodley, and Col. John M. Wilson, superintendent of public grounds, were also present during part of the consultation. They were interested in the proposals for streets in the vicinity of the cathedral.

The three against Contractor Warfield for failure to perform his service according to contract have been reduced by about $225.

Superintendent Stevens yesterday presented to the Commissioners his plan for making an inner bathing basin of the large pool at the foot of Seventeenth street. He said the improvement could be effected with a saving of $10,000 over the plans for filling the pool, or walling it.

AQUATIC EXHIBITIONS.
He wished also to secure the privilege to let up one half for an aquatic exhibition, something in the manner of that seen at the World's Fair in Chicago. This might be made a place of amusement and a place charged. Mr. Stevens said in case this were allowed, a very considerable investment of private funds would probably be made to create a creditable establishment. His plans were approved by the Commissioners, but they said the matter must be referred to the Secretary of War and finally to Congress.

If the bathing pools were constructed, they might be likely a superfluous, with a most salary would be appointed to take charge.

The Sixth street sewer, which extends near the navy yard, and Lieut. Commander Leake's complaint that it was a subject of a letter to Acting Secretary McKeloid from the Commissioners yesterday. It states that much of the annoyance to residents at the navy yard caused by the odors from the sewer will be remedied in short time. There is not, however, any money to dredge the outlet from the sewer, as suggested by Mr. Leake.

All the bids for the lunch stand at the wholesale market, corner of Tenth street and Louisiana avenue, opened November 25, were rejected yesterday and the verbal proposal made by Sextus H. Rose was accepted. Mr. Rose will pay $20 for three months, $40 for the next three months and $60 for the remainder of the period ending December 31, 1896, this rental to be paid monthly in advance. The contract begins December 9.

The chain gang will fill the old ditch carrying water from the boundary sewer between stations 0 and 4.

Ridger's R. Road was appointed a private policeman in connection with his duties as assistant sergeant of the South Cavalry. The resignation of Station Keeper A. V. Conway was accepted to take effect December 1, 1895.

POLICEMAN REMOVED.
Policeman H. E. Kanke was removed to take effect November 29, 1895.

Five horses, Nos. 125, 126, 127, 128 and 145 were condemned as unfit for further service and turned over to the property clerk to dispose of.

BRUTE AND DRUNKARD.

Epithets Applied to Her Husband by Mrs. Olga P. Begay.

Mrs. Olga P. Begay, by her attorney, Campbell, yesterday requested the court to issue a writ of habeas corpus for her husband, who had been committed to the city jail for drunkenness.

Her answer is a general denial of charges preferred. She admits that soon after her husband was committed to the city jail, she was married, but avers that he then said he had separated from his wife, because of the fact that she had given birth to an illegitimate child, a statement which she afterward discovered was a "malicious lie."

She also denies that her child, Olga, is illegitimate, and says in general that her husband was of violent temper, a drunkard, a profligate, and that he squandered about $50,000 in riotous living. On one occasion she said, he sought in a rage to kill their daughter, and that though he after promised reformation he invariably returned to his excesses.

Begay is stated to be beyond the reach of the marshal, who induced the subpoena as "not found."
